

The Association of Professional
Engineers and Geoscientists of Alberta

Note: All allegations are considered unproven, pending the final decision of the Discipline Committee.

IN THE MATTER OF THE *ENGINEERING
AND GEOSCIENCE PROFESSIONS ACT* (“EGP Act”)

AND

IN THE MATTER OF THE CONDUCT OF RAYMOND MARTIN, P. ENG.

NOTICE OF DISCIPLINE HEARING

Regarding APEGA Discipline Case No. [REDACTED] E. Martin & R. Martin

TAKE NOTICE that pursuant to the Engineering and Geoscience Professions Act (“EGP Act”), a complaint has been referred to the Discipline Committee of the Association of Professional Engineers and Geoscientists of Alberta (“APEGA”) for a formal hearing regarding the conduct of:

Raymond Martin, P. Eng., APEGA Member #42607

TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that particulars of the conduct in respect of which the formal hearing will be held, as presented by the APEGA Investigative Committee, and entitled “CHARGES” are attached to and form part of this Notice.

TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that the hearing will take place in a fully virtual environment:

Proceedings will start at 10:00 am on Tuesday, June 13th, 2023

MS Teams is the interface used for virtual hearings. If a party would like to schedule a test environment to determine the necessary technological requirements are met for the virtual hearing, please send a written request on or before May 23, 2023 via email: hearings@apega.ca.

TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that pursuant to EGP Act – Part 5 – Section 56, the aforementioned persons may appear and be represented by Legal Counsel at the preliminary application before the APEGA Discipline Committee.

TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that pursuant to the EGP Act – Part 5 – Section 58(1), that evidence may be given before the APEGA Discipline Committee in any manner that the Committee considers appropriate, and the Committee is not bound by the rules of law respecting evidence applicable to judicial proceedings.

TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that pursuant to the EGP Act – Part 5 – Section 61(3), that the Discipline Committee, on proof of service of the notice of investigation on the investigated person and the complainant, if any, may

- (a) proceed with the investigation in the absence of either or both of these persons, and
- (b) act on the matter being investigated in the same way as though either or both of those persons were in attendance.

DATED this February 17, 2023, in the City of Edmonton, in the Province of Alberta.

Erum Afsar, P.Eng.
Director, Enforcement, APEGA
On behalf of the Registrar